

A SUMMER AFTERNOON

est

is

sunt

are

nōn

not

sed

but

I must conFESS

I'm tired.

dēfessa

lentē

slowly

A black and white photograph showing two men from behind, walking on a dirt path. They are carrying a stretcher with a person lying on it. The man in the foreground is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and light-colored trousers. The man in the background is wearing a hat and a light-colored shirt. The path is surrounded by dry, scrubby vegetation and hills in the background.

ambulat
ambulant

walk

currit currunt

run

Cornēlia est puella Rōmāna.

Flāvia est puella Rōmāna.

Cornēlia et Flāvia sunt puellae Rōmānae quae in Italiā habitant.
who

Puellae nōn sedent
sed in agrīs ambulat.
fields

Cornēlia est dēfessa.

Nōn iam ambulat
sed sub arbore sedet.

Flāvia, quae est puella strēnua,
who energetic
in agrīs currit.
fields

Flāvia iam est dēfessa.

Iam Flāvia et Cornēlia sub arbore sedent, quod puellae sunt dēfessae.

Dum puellae sub arbore sedent, Cornēlia legit et Flāvia scrībit.

Tandem puellae ambulant lentē Finally
ex agrīs ad vīllam rūsticam.
out of fields to